TO SAVE OLD BATHS

Ancient Ruins of Caracalla to Be Preserved.

ONCE WONDER OF WORLD

Accommodations for 16,000 Bathers at the Same Time.

Government of Italy Carrying Out the Scheme-Will Hardly Be Recognizable.

ROME, July 27.-It has always been in ancient remains which have the baths

Bonghi, and the ex-cabinet minister, Guido Bacelli, has intrusted Senator of the city. The whole forms a magnifiwere glorious realities, so that besides the hatural plants of the soil, there are only seven kinds of trees, the classic trees of

Baths Overshadow All.

In the center, and overshadowing all. stand the baths. One does not need to be a profound student of Roman times one mile of underground passages, evito the different bath halls above, and were the vehicle through which the soiled the wonders of this pile was the models reproduced with tion shows that the roof was flat with-before them, tached to the walls. This Caracalla li-

There must have been a co'onnade of them at the baths, as the two standing in St. Peter's which are its pride, came from chased. now been identified as near the Mont Cenis tunnel, at Frejus, but there is no

Huge Capital on One Side.

again, there lies on one side a huge capi- styles I like best and have them copied.

a decided opinion, but remarked that un- as they usually go at about half their doubtedly great havoc was worked in the cost. middle ages when sculptures were collected and admired, palatial buildings were being built, and there was no reverence for the work of those who had gone be

The sewers found at the baths have an extent of nearly three miles, while there were thirty-six rooms used as reservoirs, disposed in two rows. Prof. Lanciani, to whose untiring energy and devotion all these discoveries produced in greater quantities each seaare due, has asked the government for a further appropriation of $100,000, that he their original positions. This will not be difficult, as they are nearly all in the

"LOVE MAKES MAN RICH."

"Makes Woman Poor," According to a Turkish Saying.

night without a moon,

t an his deadliest for

A happy love must be held with both

every thought, in his safe and credit in his pocket.

Whoever wants to know his own worth let him go a-courting without money or Love makes man rich, woman poor; it makes man strong, woman weak.

From the Hull (lows) Index. Mrs. Dick De Velder went to Rock Valley Monday to take some operation. Mrs. K. Rouwenhorst will take her operation at Rochester, Minn., some time

Miss Johanna Veen Schoten left for Sloux City Wednesday and returned home

this week.

"You are familiar. I presume, with ple who make the selections must be able Johnson's 'Rasselas.'" observed the

You must have got him mixed with Frank Gotch," said the St. Louis young man: "Johnson is a prize fighter." Then silence, like a cataplasm, de-

THE ECOMOMICS OF FASHION.

. II—Ready-Made Women's Clothes.

By Frederic J. Haskin.

were invited to see the dresses, and were

Within a few weeks samples were submitted and the orders for the fabrics were cheaper lines of colored lingerie dresses are now imported, although they are

Formerly the ready-made clothes

The one-piece dress brought with it the demand for the long coat, which has been

The manufacture of women's ready-made clothing has originated two distinctly new lines of industry, viz., the lingerie

Easily Made Rose Jars.

the dew has evaporated. They should then be placed in a stone jar and sprinhalf-inch layer of petals. The contents of

They should be allowed to remain in the jar ten days after the last layer has been

An ounce each of coarsely ground cloves

and allspice, and as much stick cinnamon, broken into small pieces, should next be provided. Transfer the rose petals to another jar, sprinkle in the spices between layers of petals. Cover the jar tightly, and let it stand in a dark place for three weeks, at the end of which time the stock is ready for the permanent jar, which may be simple or elaborate, so long as it

Have ready a quarter of an ounce each of coarsely ground mace, allspice and cloves; half a grated nutmeg, half an ounce of cinnamon, an ounce of powdered

layers of rose petals from the stock jar with sprinklings of the spices. A few drops each of rose, geranium, neroli and bitter almond oils should be dropped upon the layers as the jar is filled, and an ounce of fine rose extract poured over

A rose jar thus prepared will keep for Slightly Mistaken Identity.

Next fill the rose jar, alternating has a double cover.

The enormous development in the bordered mater'als have been in vogue manufacture of ready-made clothing American factories have been giving presents several economic advantages to special attention to designs of this kind.

The first of them were brought over from the mind and pocketbook of the average Europe and frocks manufactured from woman. The style secured by the first- them were placed on exhibition in the class firms handling these goods is rooms of a dealer who supplies large numsuperior to that achieved by any but bers of lingerie dresses throughout the ie highest-priced tailors. This is a distinct boon to the woman who desires then told that they would be expected to dressed with the minimum furnish materials in similar width and expenditure of time and trouble. These quality with the same bordered effect. styles are not secured without effort on the part of the buyers who select placed. Very few of the materials in the

and dresses for one of our openings is women were confined to suits and waists, more nerve racking than the manipula- but with the coming of the one-piece tion of the stock exchange," said the dress came plenty of models for this pophead of a firm dealing with the highest ular and economical garment at prices classes of women's garments. "I go which frequently seem marvelous. The semi-princess models have many advanover to New York and begin my work tages, and one is that they are much until late in the evening, and before skirt. frazzle. I first select styles which are the husband in buttoning his wife's brought over to us from Paris by our dresses perhaps have been responsible for wonder of the world when built as it first appears does not meet with the approval of the average American front, making it easy for a woman to harmonious forces, his life is made a conso, and, while not so large woman. It requires more or less modi- fasten them herself. The introduction of as those of Diocletian, were more luxu- fications. These are determined upon by large buttons and buttonholes instead of rious, accommodating 16,000 bathers co- a long series of conferences with ex- hooks and eyes is an economy of labor safety of his son. pert modistes and tailors. Then, hav- and trouble that must appeal to most ing secured the style, there comes the women and men as a feature of the pres- the country at the moment is Master An-The government, carrying out a scheme quest of the best materials and color- ent day fashions for women's dresses. originally due to the versatile mind of the orings in which to produce it. This is late historian and statesman, Ruggiero another nerve-racking process, requiring quite as much attention as a particular woman gives to the selection of some gowns for a very special occasion. Prof. Rodolfo Lanciani, the celebrated "Sometimes a combination does not archeologist, sa well known to American give the effect desired, and something Long Coats readers, to bring to life what is known as else has to be secured. The collection of ready-to-wear dresses which we prealready covers 180 acres of land. Part sent to our customers on our opening of this land required draining and was day represents the highest skill money a fruitful source of malaria, so that, in- can pay for, aided by a judgment of cidentally, Prof. Lanciani has improved selection secured only by years of exthe health of that portion of the environs of our models not only secures a gown here together, and at times seem to mencent park, surrounding and setting forth the unique ruins from Roman times, the greatest care being taken to re-create what it must have been when the remains to look when the anxiety as to how it is going to look when the remains. what it must have been when the remains saving the anxiety as to how it is will be in vogue for certain purposes. The a most important matter, as every long loose coat has many advantages. It woman knows. The buyer giving this experience was products range in price from fifty to five- in going to an evening function. hundred dollars. Each customer knows that she is buying a model that is not likely to be duplicated.

dently for the use of slaves, as they led Garments Within vantages. There are Reach of All.

argest flat roof in the world, supported care, excepting that the patterns are du- workers. The old sweat-shop condtons copper beams, no longer in existence, plicated for a number of stores. There furnish little if any of the women's cloth-Another of the sensational discoveries being located in a different city. These is a huge library, the only one known to firms all unite in securing the best mod-The nich s where the books borate designs only twenty gowns are THE rose jar is a source of neverup made up. One goes to each of these that there were reading desks at- another one like it, and indeed she is is a most a reproduction of the right as far as her own city is concernchased one of these suits for $50, believing it to be the only one of its kind. She been unearthed, which is al- visited a friend in St. Louis and there encountered the same suit worn by a disowing to its rarity. It is as hard as the tant relative with whom she was on anyred porphyry, but almost unknown. thing but cordial terms. The annoyance

For the suits made up in stock quanthe Thermae. The quarries for this rare stone have not long been known and have tities to retail at from $25 to $35 the buyers also take great pains to economize the time of their customers. A buyer for a large department store said:

"I pay little attention to samples cloth. I must see the made-up suits. I can tell the quality of the cloth at a In the middle of what was once the glance, but I must see the finished suits garden of the baths, and will soon be so before I place my order. The wholesale again, there lies on one side a hugh capi- tailors who make our suits prepare a tal. four feet high, partly consumed. It or samples, and from these I select the line of from forty or fifty models tals in the Church of Santa Maria in The expense of making up a large line of Trastevere (the titular church of Cardinal Gibbons). the origin of which had been questioned, but which is thus settled beyond dispute.

Trastevere (the titular church of Cardinal Samples is considerable for the manufacturer, but it is the only means through which a careful buyer will select his goods. The same samples may serve a The question has often been asked, great number of buyers from different What tremendous force could have so the orders are placed for the season the strength of these baths, while others not samples always are sold at reduced rates, so strong, like the Pantheon, are almost and we always have customers who wait perfect. Prof. Lanciani would not hazard and watch for our sales of sample suits,

If the ready-made suit is a ready-to-wear lightful and refreshing odor, a bewitching All-Year Demand For Cotton Frocks. hot less so, and these are being may be able to have casts made of all decade that there has been a demand for he statues known to have belonged to cotton frocks all the year around. Formerly they were used only during the Washington hotel and got to talking avicidedly lacking in style. Now the cot- said a white-haired Kentucky colonel, "I those who wanted temperance houses as in summer and the styles are good who lived in my state, and who owned a and the prices low. The lingerie frock little stump patch which he called a farm, enough interest already in her scheme to perhaps one of the most economical "Ballooning was then a great craze, of the present day fashions. It serves and a daring aeronaut attempted to take admirably for informal evening occa- the all-air route from Cincinnati to Louispensive chiffon and lace gown that was and he came down in Uncle Josh's stump American students who flock to London. Within the last ten years there has "Uncle Josh, who had never seen a formerly required for evening wear. little pamphlet of Turkish sayings. They been a great change in the average balloon, nor even heard of one, was enhousehold in regard to evening clothes, gaged in tickling with a single-shovel and each year the number of people who plow the earth about the hills of corn require a different costume for evening wedged in among the stumps. When the from that worn in the daytime increases. old mule hitched to the plow saw the Whoever is good to a sorrowing mother The dressy bodice with a dark skirt is balloon it got in a big hurry for the first no longer regarded as suitable for even time in its life; in fact, it ran away and Viscount Esher. The "Letters of Queen completely as ever today. occasions. The one-piece lingerie tore up the plow. dress has taken its place. It was the "The balloon struck about fifty yards lingerie frock that was the great triumph away and a being strangely garbed dis-Woman can make heaven or hell for a of the fashionable dressmaker a few engaged himself from the tangle, years ago. The materials cost little or "At the same time Uncle Josh's knees." nothing, but almost any sum might be charged for the designs set in lace and perhaps a small amount of hand empouled off his hat and started crawling perhaps a small amount of hand em- pulled off his hat and started crawling A stupld wife will harm a man more broidery. Frequently a dressmaker to meet the stranger. The aeronaut was would charge $60 for a dress when the surprised at first, but he understood the materials would hardly cost $5. Her cause of the worshipful approach when profits were enromous, for after the gown uncle Josh greeted him: was fitted, the work of sewing in the "'How yo' all do. Mar lace could be done chiefly by apprentice yo' let yoah folks?' Who wishes to marry must have money girls. The ready-made dress in the store now has practically cut this price half. Twenty-five dollars will buy a lingerie dress frequently of better style than a dressmaker could produce for tifty and by the addition of a little

Couldn't Miss Them.

"'How yo' all do. Marse Gabriel? How original touch in the shape of a knot of A order' lay on the tailor's table ready the queen's mind and character. of an individual design easily may be for cleaning and pressing. "About the only kind of dirt I can see on that suit is chalk," a man remarked.

"Looks as if it had been dragged through

The models for the ready-made lingerte a chalk pit." "The woman put it there purposely, dresses are all of Parisian origin, and they represent the form of a ring that encircled a grease no small amount spot. She hunted out each spot in the of Parisian Origin. of effort on the sunlight and marked it so I couldn't possibly miss any. Fine idea, that. Maybe I shouldn't have found them all back here in the dark." and other materials are manufactured to

No Wonder. and waists, are made in Europe, the peo- From the Buffalo Express.

"So your son is not very successful as an author?" "No; he has about decided to quit writ-

The great improvements made in the methods of manufacturing fine cotton ing." cloths in this country make it possible to "How do you account for his failure? secure most of the materials in America. Some of his books have considerable merit."

ASQUITH IS WORRIED

Life of England's Premier Chain of Anxiety.

FEARFUL FOR HIS SON

Suffragists Have Sworn to Kidnap the Youngster.

country. The cotton cloth manufacturers | IN TERROR OF HIS LIFE

> Vote-Seekers Bane Stateman's Existence-Slatin Pasha to Visit King.

BY PHILLIP EVERETT.

Special Cablegram to The Star. LONDON, July 27 .- The sorrows of the mighty are resting heavily on Premier early in the morning and continue it easier to put on than the waist and of anxiety, and who, next to the Czar of The oft-repeated tales of the Russia, is probably the most worried man get through my nerves are worn to a would-be humorist regarding the trials of in Europe today. In addition to the political worries of his office and position own representative. But a French style a reform in this direction, for now many as the head of a government existing by as it first appears does not meet with women's dresses fasten on the side or in the grace of a coalition of not always tinuous torture by his anxiety for the

The most carefully guarded person in thony Asquith, the picturesque child with the long, thin face and the remarkable shock of light, yellow hair, who is so often to be seen on shopping expeditions with his mother. The suffragists have out without two detectives walking near, of the tailormade suit. Perhaps the long coat came first and brought the oneis in especial favor for women who go This was the real reason for the cancel-Rome, i e., olive, laurel, pine, cypress a member of a firm handling clothing of a least and popular, of which 10,500 have a style and quality appealing only to the wearer is compelled to use a street car ing it were persisted in they could not automobiling, and is in better form than invitations had been issued. Scotland clready been planted, nearly all doing woman with affluent means. Her creative wearer is compelled to use a street car ing it were persisted in they could not products range in price from fifty to five-

Will Be King's Guest.

dress and the tailored suit. The lingerie Slatin Pasha, one of the most remarkdresses are almost entirely designed and minor details of finishing, is done by ex- George at Windsor. The last occasion man tailors. The establishments on which the former prisoner of the Khawhere the better and medium classes of down to Balmoral to meet Sir Harry Audate factories, with at least fair attention to the health and comfort of their chief of the multitude of semi-disciplined cutthroats that made up the army of his that one night Slatin and Maclean entered, at King Edward's instigation, into a conspiracy of yarning. It was 4:30 in the morning when this modernized form of Arabian Nights' entertainment was adjourned, and, added Conde Stephen, every ending delight to its owner, and the blood-curdling story that the pair was making and maintaining one is a simple responsible for was hard, brutal facts,

The problem of finding comfortable boarding or lodging houses in London retable in a cool, airy place, to dry until mains a difficult one for large numbers of visitors, whether on business or pleasure, and particularly those from foreign coun-

with salt, a little salt over each A scheme for the solution of the difficulty is now being recommended by Mrs. the far can be added to each morning Durrant Rose, an American woman, who until enough petals have been gathered. has been spending six months in this country in order to carry on some re-search work in the British Museum, and has been looking into the way in which added, the whole mass being stirred each American students are housed in London.

Scheme Gets Support.

Her scheme-which already has received a good deal of support, both from educational institutions, such as the Polytechnic, and from several of the foreign consulates, who are often appealed to on the subject-is that an international association should be formed, which should issue recommended and classified lists of boarding and lodging houses Landladies desirous of having their houses placed on the list would have to satisfy certain simple rules, guaranteeing respectability, good saanitation, and adequate service, orris root and a quarter of a pound of and would pay a small fee, receiving in dried lavender flowers. All should be return a gratuitous advertisement. Mrs. Rose, whom I met the other day recommended the scheme as likely to cover a field at present neglected. "Different associations such as the Girls' Friendly Society and the Christian lists." she exp'ained, "and I hope we may obtain their co-operation, but they years. If the jar is left open for half an do not cover all the ground. In many cases they only recommend lodgings for young women; often young men are really in almost as great need of assistance. Some of the clergy who have been interested in my scheme, such as Mr. Phillips of the Bloomsbury Central Mission are quite clear about that" "Then, you know, many people, stu-dents and so forth, do not care about going to houses especially marked 'Christian'; they want something purely secu-hour each day, the room, and even the entire house, will be filled with a delar. Our idea would be to have a classified list of houses. People, for instance, who wanted vegetarian cooking could find houses of that sort in the list, and could do the same.

Although Mrs. Rose is returning to the United States shortly she has enlisted ess of Marlborough is giving her support, as are several American women London, who believe that the plan Early Journals of Queen.

childhood and marriage.

events of each day. Such diaries are usually begun more or less under compulsion and supervision, and the formality of the earlier portion would seem appearance as Hamlet. It was then that which was then playing its series with to afford evidence that this was the Dumas said: "Now he is at the top of the Nationals in Washington. case with the princess. But the chief value and attraction of this remarkable BLACK broadcloth sult marked "Rush record, which begins August 1, 1832, is the insight it gives into the growth of

A QUICK FINISH.

The Editor-That's a very good story, but do you consider it artistic to end The Author-Not art, but business. I ewed a couple of instalments on my typewriter and the collector was coming to take it away.

WHEN YOU THINK OF FURNITURE THINK OF JACKSON'S

The Big Store 915 to 925 Seventh Street.

Gackson Bros OUR JULY CUT PRICE SALE

is developing just what we expected—the largest July business in the history of the store. That's due to the fact that we are putting prices on goods that are bound to bring quick response. If you have a Furniture or Rug need provide it now and save big money, and

You Can Pay On Our New Method Credit Plan Make Selections Now for Future Delivery.

$1.85 For this Solid Oak Dining Chair with leather seat.

A $3.00 value.

for BAMBOO TABLE

Well made, very substantial. $1.25

tered Oak Claw-foot Extension

$9.85

Table Massive pedestal. Regular

This $18 Value Solid @1 1 Oak Mission Table, 4

A Very Massive Mission Table, like cut; solid oak, large drawer, magazine racks at each side and lower shelf. A magnificent library piece.

OCKSON 3805 Fine The Big Store 915 to 925 Seventh Street

MOUNET-SULLY FETED BY MANY ADMIRERS

nection With the Comedie Française Celebrated.

foreigner ventured to tell him something of what he thought of his Hamlet. after he had said, with perfect truth, that he never known what the sublime in

A Tame Town, After All, Despite Cowboy's Gun Fire

Fortieth Anniversary of Con-

cine's "Andromaque," and the next day The king has given permission for the and bearing took the town by storm. safety of people who lived in close proxnals, and Mr. Murray announces them in than captivated, but he soon regained two volumes, with an introduction by command over the public, and holds it as Boston.

reign, with occasional glimpses into the 1841, and was trained for the bar, but he fought well as a volunteer in the Almost from the time she could write, army of the Loire, in which he served as

> His Hamlet makes one rub one's eyes and wonder if one be dreaming a bad dream.
>
> July afternoon with his face beautifully impromptu speaker of considerable skill. shore.
>
> He possesses a mannerism, however, he did it for the purpose of preventing the refraction of the sun's rays by his which causes him invariably to raise his naval review Tuesday and in the subse-Mounet-Sully is the most modest, sim- cheek bones. He insisted that it better- He punctuates his address throughout in ple and amiable of famous actors. When ed his eyesight while in the field and an emphatic manner by shaking his fist. hollow." that he never known what the sublime in acting could be until he had seen his look. "By George!" suddenly exploded Davis, Gen. Johnston held forth at considerable slapping his knee emphatically after recording for a moment on the strange ly and said: "I thought so, I knew it."
>
> SPEAKER CANNON often refers to describe the strange ly slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length, but in very tappy vein. He finally slowed down and closed his address last white length has length and the length has length has length has length and the length has length and the length has length ha Oedipus, Mounet-Suity siniled rather sate ly, and said: "I thought so. I knew it. You don't like my Hamlet. No foreigner seems to like my Hamlet. And yet—" Jackson's dirty face." He was referring er seems to like my Hamlet. And yet—" to the well known hitter of the Cleveland to the and he went to give his idea of Hamlet, and it was an amazingly true one. The critic had never heard the character analyzed with more exactness and sub-> watched him carefully one day, and just tinsburg Thursday. He was repairing were signs of impatience among his lit matters little what it is that you before the game I saw him go to the damage caused to some of the lines of hearers. want-whether a situation or a serv- blackest patch of dirt on the diamond, the company by the storm, when he ant-a want ad in The Star will reach Wetting his tinger, he poked it into the climbed up a pole and accidentally touch- er. dust and then proceeded to draw broad, ed a live wire.

CHEYENNE'S first street car line, built one of the greatest cities on the American years ago, was not a financial can continent. The sheep herders and success. This was back in the eighties. town that morning were all sober, and the stockholders of the property to dis-

law-abiding and as well protected as window. "The inspection of the car line was a looking bored. 'Just happened t' see a Victoria," published in 1907, threw full light on the political life of the queen during the first thirty-five years of her Jean and Sully, was born in the south in the first thirty-five years of her Jean and Sully, was born in the south in the first thirty-five years of her Jean and Sully, was born in the south in the first thirty-five years of her Jean and Sully, was born in the south in the company to the car may be ascended to a height of 2,000 feet thin can out there in the street and the company the first thirty-five years of her Jean and Sully, was born in the south in the car may be ascended to a height of 2,000 feet the car may b

Helps Batting Eye.

spearean student to learn from cotem- were talking base ball with Harry Davis, up. Davis asserted that he proposed beporaries that arouner-suny was many pronounced a great actor after his first the manager of the Cleveland team, fore long to try out the face-blackening in another Short machine, S 43, flew from To an American mind Mounet-Sully's ed by a ball player which I am surprised reading of Hamlet was a mistake from has never been tried out by fielding stars beginning to end. The part of Hamlet and sluggers in the big leagues," said is the very last he should have played, one of the writers. "This particular General Commissioners of the District of Co- the battleship London steaming fifteen His Oedipus is, perhaps, the most player went into a game one cloudless splendid piece of acting of modern times. July afternoon with his face beautifully lumbia, is an eloquent orator and also an knots, and flew nineteen miles to the the refraction of the sun's rays by his left arm as le commences his remarks. quent maneuvers. prevented the loss of the ball in the sun. He seems to realize the predominance of this gesture himself. At a dinner of American League last year. tlety than by M. Mounet-Sully-in con-

United States Senate, was deputized by was sure we had made the necessary hit and that the deal for the car line was going through-that was, until we arpase of it, if possible, to a group of rived at the Cheyenne Cub for luncheon "There something happened. We had just entered the dining room, when- LONDON, July 27 .- A record waterplane Bling! Blam! Bang! Crash!-there was a roar of gun fire Powder smoke filled enough interest already in her scheme to his many friends and admirers counting the ludicrous incident which at-He made his debut at the house of nice long, iron rails and a splendid equip- the bill of fare to order his meal as Moliere July 7, 1872, as Orestes in Ra-ment of rolling stock, consisting of though nothing had happened. I looked two cars and a brace of mustangs to for my guests. Alas! they had departed. The wind at the start was blowing a draw them. When the easterners ar- Some one told me they had fled to the thirty-four miles an hour, as registered was almost famous. His voice, presence rived in Cheyenne they proceeded to station to look for the first train. The by the anemometer, and express some doubt as to the personal car line deal was off, safety of people who lived in close prox- "'What in thunder were you doing publication of Queen Victoria's early jour- In some other parts he surprised rather limity to cowboys and Indians. I assured with that six-shooter?" I asked, wraththem that Cheyenne was as civilized, fully advancing on the cowboy near the ered the 184 miles round the coast in grimy rings under his eyes. That shading undoubtedly allows him a better con-

Overworked.

his former army associates last winter

"There is one wrinkle I once saw work-

AT SIXTY MILES AN HOUR

British Naval Officer Makes Record Flight in a Hydro-Aeroplane.

"'Oh, nuthin' much, he answered, of sixty miles an hour. During the jour-mander sent back to Eastchurch news of his arrival by wireless. He still had enough fuel and oil for another 200 miles without replenishing, one naval authorcentration of gaze on the ball, and prob- ities consider that this flight is of ex-Almost from the time she could write, army of the Loire, in which he served as the princess kept a diary in which were recorded regularly and mounted infantry. It seems strange to any English Shake- And before the press club sitting broke ings ago a group of newspaper men And before the press club sitting broke Lieut Spencer Gray and a medianter. Lieut, Spencer Gray and a mechanic scended on account of engine trouble He effected repairs while the machine floated on a choppy sea, and then flew on to Portsmouth. Lieut. L'Estrange

Really Considerate.

magnificent bricks-American citizens. He "When Jackson shows up at the bat | James P. Magee, manager of the New | was pursuing this line at an after-dinner on a bright day his face looks as though he had been through an automobile road tersville Electric Light and Power Company, was instantly killed at New Martines of Europe. There "Cheer up, gentlemen," said the Speaker. "I promise you I won't go back any farther than the Caucasian race!"

scended to ameliorate the impact of the stransparrie concussion.

Frequently, however, a foreign design "Yes, but he refuses to write about New Will be copied. For example, since the York, or to live there."

to anticipate the styles.

secure a desired effect, and as most of the laces, even for the cheaper frocks

Models All

Roston girl.

Museum of Naples.

Special Cablegram to The Star.

man in his home. The brain of a quarrelsome woman is hands, with the eyes, the ears and with

The Village Cut-Ups.

Saturday. She took a slight operation. Setting Her Right. From the Chicago Tribune.